General Rules for B.A., LL.B. (Five Year) {Ten Semester} Degree Course (Session 2009-10 and onwards)

WHEREAS, it is necessary to adopt and implement the revised curriculum and rules formulated by the Bar Council of India, M.J.P. Rohilkhand University, Bareilly hereby adopts B.A., LL.B. Five Years (Ten Semester) Degree Course of Study and frames the following general rules for the implementation from the academic year 2009-10 onwards.

(i) Eligibility for Admission:

A candidate will be eligible for admission to B.A., LL.B. Five Years (Ten Semester) class if he/she has completed Intermediate or any other equivalent 10+2 course recognized by M.J.P. Rohilkhand University and has secured not less than 45% marks at Intermediate level. However, for SC/ST candidate minimum percentage of marks will be 40%.

(ii) Admission Procedure:

Admission to B.A., LL.B. First Semester will be made strictly on the basis of the merit list prepared according to the percentage of the marks obtained by candidates in the qualifying examination plus the weightage, if any, for which the candidate may be entitled as per University Rules. The percentage will be calculated upto three figures after decimal point.

(iii) To determine the merit for admission of such candidates who have secured equal marks in the qualifying examination, the candidate senior in age will get preference in the merit list.

(iv) Reservation and weightage shall be as per University Rules.

(v) Prohibition to register for two regular courses of study:

No students shall be allowed to simultaneously register for a law degree programme with any other graduate or post graduate degree programme run by M.J.P. Rohilkhand University or any other University or an Institute for academic or professional learning.

(vi) Age on admission:

Bar Council India has recommended for maximum age on admission to B.A., LL.B. Course; however, these are only recommendatory and not mandatory. Since M.J.P. Rohilkhand University is an affiliating University for B.A., LL.B. Course, the Faculty Board is of the view that maximum age bar is not feasible as of now. However, the Vice Chancellor, M.J.P. Rohilkhand University may take final decision regarding age on admission keeping in view the recommendation provided in Schedule III Para 28 of Bar Council India Rules of Legal Education after necessary deliberations.

(vii) Attendance:

No student of B.A., LL.B. programme shall be allowed to take the end semester examination if the students concerned has not attended minimum of 75% of the classes held as also the moot court room exercise, tutorials and practicals conducted in the subject taken together. Provided that if a student for any exceptional reasons failed to attend 75% of the classes held in any subject, the Principal of the College may allow the student after approval from the Vice-Chancellor of M.J.P. Rohilkhand University, if he/she attended at least 66% of the classes held.

(viii) Overriding Effect:

The relevant UGC/BCI Rules (as amended from time to time) shall be binding on the University.

B.A., LL.B. (Five Year: Ten Semester) Programme

Rules for Promotion, Exemption, Back Paper including Rules for Improvement etc. to be effective from Session 2009-10

Curriculum and Duration of Studies:

1. The Five Year degree course in law, namely Bachelor of Laws (B.A., LL.B.) shall be divided in Ten Semester.
2. The curriculum of studies of the B.A., LL.B. Degree shall comprise of the courses set out hereinafter schedule A.
3. The course content of each paper of study except the papers of the legal discipline shall be such as set out hereinafter schedule B.
However, course content of the papers of legal discipline shall remain the same as given in schedule A and schedule B for LL.B. Three years (Six Semester) Course.
Provided that the Board of Studies in Law may make such changes in content of the course of study as and when it deems it necessary and report the matter to the Faculty Board of Law for approval.
4. The curriculum of study for the B.A., LL.B. five year degree course shall be spread over five academic years, and shall be divided into ten semester for the examination purposes called as First, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth semester. Each academic year shall be divided into two semesters.
5. Each semester course shall be conducted in not less than 18 weeks with not less than 30 class hours per week, including tutorials, moot court, seminars, workshops and special lectures provided there shall be at least 24 lecture hours per week as prescribed by the Bar Council of India.

Examination

1. In every Semester in each paper/practical, as the case may be, maximum marks shall be 100 while minimum pass marks in each paper shall be 36% individually and 45% in aggregate i.e., total of all papers, as the case may be, of that Semester taken together.
2. A candidate shall be examined in 20 compulsory first degree papers (which shall include one major subject consisting of six papers and English consisting of three papers and other minor subjects consisting not less than three papers each) and 20 compulsory law papers, four compulsory practical papers and six optional theory papers from first to tenth semester carrying 90 marks for each paper through written examination conducted by the University and 10 marks in each paper shall be of tutorial/ written assignments.
3. A candidate shall be examined for tutorial/ written assignments by two examiners, of which one shall be internal and one external from the discipline of Law. External examiners from legal discipline shall be appointed batchwise by the university for each Semester. Internal examiners of each paper shall conduct examination of the concerned paper for tutorial/ written assignments with the same External examiner in a particular batch.

The Examination Committee, in pursuance of its Resolution no. 4 in its meeting held on 01.04.2010, unanimously revises the evaluation process of the Tutorial/Written Assignment as follows:

1. The provision of a Tutorial of 10 marks in each subject is maintained as per the guidelines of the Bar Council.
2. The marks of the Tutorial shall be awarded by the teachers teaching the concerned subjects and such teachers must be recognized/approved, selected by a due process /approved by the university.
3. Out of the prescribed 10 marks for the Tutorials, 5 marks should be awarded on the basis of the attendance and performance of the student in the group discussion and, 5 marks on the basis of his written assignment and presentation. In reference to the marks awarded on—the basis of the - attendance, it is clarified that these marks should be awarded only to those students who have maintained more than 75% class room attendance.

4. The marks awarded on the basis of attendance should be based on verifiable records (such as the Attendance Register).
  5. In case, the marks awarded in Tutorials are less than 30% or more than 80%, the normalization process may be adopted to make the same justifiable.

The above text (decision of Examination Committee) has been sent all concern Colleges vide letter No.- Ru. Vi./Gop. /2010/12336-350 dated 05.04.2010 for immediate compliance.

4. The four compulsory practical Papers as prescribed in semesters carrying 100 marks shall be examined as prescribed in the contents of the papers by two examiners, of which one shall be internal and one external.
5. Division shall be awarded on the combined result of examinations of all the Semester. Those of the successful candidates who obtain 45% and upwards and below 60% of the total marks obtainable shall be placed in the SECOND DIVISION and those of the successful candidate who obtain 60% and upwards of the total marks obtainable shall be placed in the FIRST DIVISION.
6. Grace Marks: A candidate may be given five marks as grace marks in individual paper or in aggregate, as the case may be, if these grace marks enable him to pass the examination of that Semester.
7. (a) Promotion:
  - (1) No student shall be promoted to the next semester if he/she has been detained in the examination for shortage of attendance.
  - (2) All candidates who have had the minimum required percentage of attendance in the First Semester, filled up the examination form and appeared in the first semester examination will be promoted to Second Semester. The same rules of promotion will be applicable to the examinees of the third to fourth semester, fifth to sixth semester, seventh to eighth semester, and ninth to tenth semesters as well.
  - (3) A student shall be promoted in third semester only after passing in a minimum of eight papers of the first and second semesters together with a minimum of 45% marks in aggregate in the eight papers (he / she had passed). The remaining two papers in which the student has failed or dropped out will not be taken into count.
  - (4) A student shall be admitted in the Fifth semester only after passing a minimum of eight papers of the third and fourth semester, together, with 45% marks in aggregate in the eight papers (he /she had passed). The remaining two papers in which the student has failed or dropped out will not be taken into count.
However, under any circumstances, the student will not be admitted in the Fifth semester, unless and until he /she passed his first and second semester.
  - (5) A student shall be admitted in the seventh semester only after passing a minimum of eight papers of the fifth and sixth semester, together, with 45% marks in aggregate in the eight papers (he /she had passed). The remaining two papers in which the student has failed or dropped out will not be taken into count.
However, under any circumstances, the student will not be admitted in the seventh semester, unless and until he /she passed his third and fourth semester.
  - (6) A student shall be admitted in the ninth semester only after passing a minimum of eight papers of the seventh and eighth semester, together, with 45% marks in aggregate in the eight papers (he /she had passed). The remaining two papers in which the student has failed or dropped out will not be taken into count.

However, under any circumstances, the student will not be admitted in the ninth semester; unless and until he/she passed his fifth and sixth semester.

7. (b) Back Paper:

(1) Students will be allowed to appear in only two papers in each year (the 1st & IInd Semester, IIIrd & IVth semester, Vth & VIth semester, VIIth & VIIIth semester, IXth & Xth semester) as back paper in the next forthcoming semester examinations.

(2) The back paper facility to reappear in a semester examination of any two papers only shall be available to a candidate who failed in any two individual papers in Semester examination or to a candidate who passed in all individual papers but could not reach the aggregate marks to pass the semester.

(3) A candidate who is allowed to reappear in the examination in accordance with above rules shall appear in the next examination of those papers along with the regular examination of the Semester to which he was promoted.

7. (c) Ex-student

(1) A candidate who has failed in more than two papers or / and has failed to obtain a minimum of 45% marks in aggregate in eight papers (the-1st & IInd Semester, IIIrd & IVth semester, Vth & VIth semester, VIIth & VIIIth semester, IXth & Xth semester) as per the Rules of Promotion, he shall be allowed to appear as an ex-student in the concerned Semester.

However, such candidate may opt to retain his marks in any of the papers which he has passed with 45% or above percentage of marks. The marks retained in this option shall be valid to be included in the examination which he takes as Ex-student.

(2) A candidate who has failed in the examination but is eligible for back paper facility may also be allowed to appear in the examination as an ex-student; however, if he wants to appear as an ex-student or otherwise appears as an ex-student in the examinations, he shall not be granted promotion to the next Semester.

(3) A candidate shall be allowed to appear as ex-student/ back paper for not more than three attempts in that paper subject to the condition that he will have to clear the LL.B. 5-years (ten semester) degree course in maximum of ten Years. If he fails to pass the examination during this period, he will be deemed to have abandoned the course and shall not be readmitted.

8. Readmission:

I. There shall be no readmission in the first, third, fifth, seventh and ninth semesters.

II. A student, who has failed in examination or failed to appear in the examination and who is otherwise eligible to appear in the examination as an ex-student shall not be admitted as a regular student.

9. Improvement: A candidate can reappear at the rate of one paper in each Semester, as back paper, for improving his marks/division. But this facility will be available to those candidates only who pass the examination in one go and without availing the back paper facility. However, the inter-se merit of the candidate shall be determined on the basis of marks obtained in the First examination.

All disputes regarding interpretation of provision of these rules shall be referred to the Examination Committee of the University whose decision shall be final.

General Rules for LL.B. (Three Year) {Six Semester} Degree Course
(Session 2009-10 and onwards)

WHEREAS, it is necessary to adopt and implement the revised curriculum and rules formulated by the Bar Council of India, M.J.P. Rohilkhand University, Bareilly hereby adopts LL.B. Three Years (Six Semester) Degree Course of Study and frames the following general rules for the implementation from the academic year 2009-10 onwards.

(i) Eligibility for Admission:

A candidate will be eligible for admission to LL.B. class if he/she has completed BA/B.Sc/B.Com or any other bachelor's degree recognized by M.J.P. Rohilkhand University and has secured not less than 45% marks at Graduate level. However, for SC/ST candidate minimum percentage of marks will be 40%.

(ii) Admission Procedure:

Admission to LL.B. First Semester will be made strictly on the basis of the merit list prepared according to the percentage of the marks obtained by candidates in the qualifying examination plus the weightage, if any, for which the candidate may be entitled as per University Rules. The percentage will be calculated upto three figures after decimal point.

(iii) To determine the merit for admission of such candidates who have secured equal marks in the qualifying examination, the percentage of marks secured by the candidate at the intermediate or equivalent examination will be the determining factor of merit for admission.

If the marks obtained at the intermediate or equivalent examination by two or more candidates are the same, in that case the candidates senior in age will get preference in the merit list.

(iv) Reservation and weightage shall be as per University Rules.

Unquote (Justification):

1. Since the number of candidates applying for entrance examination for admission to LL.B. is less than three times of the available seats in affiliated colleges, there is no need for entrance examination.
2. It has been observed in previous years that a lot of time is wasted in the process of entrance examination and counseling, and still most of seats in various affiliated colleges could not be filled by the university; hence, this system is of no utility in such circumstances.
3. A significant majority of candidates, who apply for admission to this course are graduates from the Mahatma Jyotiba Phule University; so we can rely on the examination results of the same university.

(v) Prohibition to register for two regular courses of study:

No students shall be allowed to simultaneously register for a law degree programme with any other graduate or post graduate degree programme run by M.J.P. Rohilkhand University or any other University or an Institute for academic or professional learning.

(vi) Age on admission:

Bar Council India has recommended for maximum age on admission to LL.B. Course; however, these are only recommendatory and not mandatory. Since M.J.P. Rohilkhand University is an affiliating University for LL.B. Course, the Faculty Board is of the view that maximum age bar is not feasible as of now. However, the Vice Chancellor, M.J.P.
